And we pray for...

Those visiting our church for the first time...
Parent/child relationships... people recovering from illness or addiction... neighbors at Alpha House... those grappling with financial stress... those affected by job loss... expectant mothers... teachers... homebound members... people rebuilding after devastation from natural disasters and those providing assistance as recovery continues... our military... citizens of countries at war... victims of assault... those who are marginalized in our society... people struggling with depression and hopelessness... those who are grieving... caregivers... those experiencing marriage or relationship difficulties... people struggling with on-going health issues...

"Prayer is not asking. Prayer is putting oneself in the hands of God, at His disposition, and listening to His voice in the depth of our hearts."
